Description	Sadhguru, an Indian spiritual leader, founded the worldwide Save Soil movement to fight soil erosion and promote wholesome soil. The initiative was presented on 5 April at the United Nations in Geneva by the Isha Foundation and sponsored by the WHO, UN SDG lab, and IUCN. In order to raise awareness about soil degradation and promote the return of organic matter to agricultural processes, the VAGDEVI Foundation, an IUCN Member, inaugurated the "Trip to Preserve Soil" in OCP on March 21. Its founder, Sadhguru, set off on a 100-day motorbike journey through 26 nations. The physical, chemical, and biological deterioration of soil quality is known as soil degradation. Half of the world's soil is depleted due to unabated deforestation, urbanisation, industrial pollution, overgrazing, and unsustainable farming methods. deteriorated already. Its loss puts at risk the quality and availability of food, water security, and biodiversity, increases the danger of a change in the climate, and can result in loss of livelihood, conflict, and migration. There has never been a greater pressing need to alter farming methods. Students and staff from OCP participated in the movement and Sadhguru's visit to Hyderabad as part of this effort, and they also planted a few trees in the neighbourhood of airport.

In collaboration with	SEMINAR HALL
Description	The majority of plastics we use today are still produced using fossil fuels, which results in higher greenhouse gas emissions during all stages of manufacture, use, and disposal. Furthermore, recycling rates are still low, and plastics continue to be a concern to the environment due to littering, poor waste management, and product wear and tear that contaminates the environment with microplastics. Polymers and the chemical additives they contain have a long half-life in nature and may end up in the food chain. Several firms have introduced polymers that are regarded as bio-based, compostable, or biodegradable in response to rising public demand. Yet, barely 1% of the market is occupied by these kinds of plastics. Plastics that decompose and can be composted should decrease the environmental issue that plastics present, but they still need to be disposed of properly, an important element that is frequently poorly understood by consumers, according to the EEA briefing. For instance, over a predetermined amount of time, microbes can convert biodegradable and compostable materials into new biomass, water, carbon dioxide, and mineral salts. As part of this awareness campaign, OCP students and staff travelled to the village and raised awareness about plastic bags, how safe they are for the environment, and the dangers they bring.
